The first three days back at school have shown us what resilient, respectful and responsible pupils we have here at Coit. The children have come back ready to learn and keen to show off their knowledge and skills as well as tell us about their exciting summer holidays. Well done everyone!

Activity Mornings

From Monday 18th September, activity mornings will be starting in classrooms from 8.15am-8.30am. This is an opportunity for you to practise key skills with your child, read or complete home learning tasks. Instructions and activities will be given on the interactive whiteboard and children must be accompanied and supported by an adult during this time. Please look out on Google Classroom for information regarding the days that your activity mornings will run.

On Friday 22nd September, we will be celebrating Roald Dahl Day at Coit. The children can wear yellow to represent Roald Dahl's favourite colour or can dress up as their favourite Roald Dahl character. In past years, we have had some terrific Twits, magnificent Matilda's and brilliant BFGs. See the link below for more information about Roald Dahl Day.
