Home Learning

JK Rowling (author of Harry Potter) has written a new book called 'The Ickabog'. She has been releasing it online (for free) a chapter at a time during lockdown. Follow the link to have a read...

There is also a competition for 8-12 year olds to create an illustration of one of the chapters which she may then use when she has the book officially published in November. <https://www.theickabog.com/home/>

If you need help or further advice regarding any aspect of home learning, from engagement to methods we use, then please contact a member of staff on the usual school number or email. We are more than happy to help.

Staff Contact

Email:

Telephone:

Many of the staff are now in school for the majority of the week. Please contact staff using the class email addresses (above) to arrange a mutually convenient time to call. Alternatively, phone the school office before midday to request a phone call with a member of staff.

All staff are happy to speak to parents and children at a time convenient to all.

Water Safety

With the recent hot weather in mind, the RNLI have launched a new campaign to keep children (and adults) safe around water. The campaign is called 'Float to Live' to encourage people not to panic if they fall into cold water. The advice is to stay calm and float, rather than trying to swim or thrash about.

Please be mindful of this if your daily exercise takes you near a body of water, For more information, visit:

Google Classroom Home learning Champions...

Dawoud Akhtar —Dawoud continues to be a fantastic learner at home, he gives 100% and it's wonderful to see all he is getting up to. Super star! Well done Dawoud, I'm very proud of you!	F2
Finley Wilson - Finley has produced some fantastic homework. I have loved seeing his Giuseppe Arcimboldo art work this week using different fruits and vegetables. Finley's work is always to a great standard. Keep it up!	Y1
Jake Mitchell —Jake is putting a huge amount of effort into his home learning. He has created a fantastic diary in role as an astronaut on the SpaceX launch. He has also blown me away with the work he is completing using White Rose maths.	Y2
Alice Sykes —Alice has consistently produced work of a high standard. She is so enthusiastic and keen to work hard. Well done!	Y3
Isaiah Lee —Isaiah has been coming up with creative ways to show off his home learning, through videos, voice notes, presentations and excellent handwritten work. He also brings a smile to everybody's face every single day with his jokes on Google Classroom. Well done for having such a positive attitude, Isaiah!	Y4
Olivia Taylor — This is the second time I've awarded Olivia the Home Learning Champion. but with good reason. She has worked so brilliantly at home, even over half term. She completes above and beyond what is asked of her and, to top it off, has written an amazing story this week which has even impressed Mrs Eagleton! Keep it up Olivia :-)	Y5
Sallie Sykes — Sallie has worked very hard this week to complete her tasks. She is very dedicated to her learning. Well done.	Y6
