Home Learning

If you need help or further advice regarding any aspect of home learning, from engagement to methods we use, then please contact a member of staff on the usual school number, email or use the mobile numbers below. We are more than happy to help.

Feed your family for Less: Eat Smart Sheffield, Live Lighter and Sheffield is Sweet Enough have worked together to create a 'Feed Your Family for Less' resource pack. This 28 page document contains a selection of low cost, healthy recipes, sugar swap & save ideas and a budget cooking factsheet, as well as signposting information for additional recipes and healthy eating tips.

Download it here: <https://www.learnsheffield.co.uk/Partners/Eat-Smart-Sheffield/Resources>

The WWF have some amazing resources on their website to foster a love of nature and learn more about our amazing planet from home (and outside!) Please see the link below:

Google Classroom Home learning Champions...

Annabelle Lee —Annabelle continues to work exceptionally hard in all tasks. She is varying her approaches and methods of recording. As always, with a smile on her face. Well done Annabelle, I am very proud of you!	F2
Tabitha Mounsey - Tabitha has completed home learning week upon week to a very high standard. It has been a pleasure to see. I can tell that you have really loved your homework! Keep this up :)	Y1
Drew Edwards —Drew has continued to work very hard at home. I have been particularly impressed with the standard of her English work! Keep up the hard work, Drew!	Y2
Aemelia Knight —Aemelia has been working so hard at home and has been producing some high quality maths and writing. We are so proud of you so keep it up.	Y3
Charles Parkin —Not only has Charles been completing his maths and English home learning to a high standard, he has also been challenging himself to learn new science and computing skills. Keep up the great work, Charles!	Y4
Ellie-Mae Guest —Ellie has been working so hard at home over the past few weeks. She always emails in work which is of a high standard. I have been particularly impressed with her dedication to her Maths work :-). Continue with the great work Ellie!	Y5
Daniel Marshall — Daniel has been working consistently hard every week even when he has found the work challenging. Fantastic attitude Daniel - keep it up!	Y6
