Sports Update

Massive congratulations to our Y5/6 football team who came a fantastic second place overall in the last stage of their tournament yesterday! They played brilliantly and supported one another which was great to see.

Well done to Austin, Harry, Luke, Abdul, Ellis, Dylan, Daniel, Alfie, Ethan, Oscar, Henry, George and Sam!

Sam said, "It was really fun playing other schools and I really enjoyed it!"

Parents' Evening and Structured Conversations

Parents' Evenings: Monday 14th October and Wednesday 23rd October

Structured Conversations: Monday 14th October and Monday 21st October

Available appointments are now very restricted. Please see the class teacher.

Celebrating Success-This Week's Awards

Tabitha Mounsey has won a Children's University Bronze Award—amazing!

Harvest Festival

Our Harvest Festival is Friday 25th October at 9:15am. Please note that seating and standing space will be restricted.

A list was circulated last week from the Cathedral Archer Project for items needed. Donations can be left with staff and will be put on display during the celebration. A guest speaker from the project will be present.

We will also be donating to the local St Saviour's Church Foodbank following research completed by Y4.
