Our Awards

	Termly Bennett Award	House Points	Learning Mindset - Resilience	Class Attendance
F2	All of F2 I could not possibly pick one termly bennet winner as you have all had the best term starting at Coit Primary School. You have all worked so hard this week with our virtual learning! Well done and keep up the good work.
Y1	Freya Bond When Freya arrives in the morning she is full of beans and raring to go! Her enthusiasm and effort with work is impressive. Well done Freya, keep it up!	Matilda Lightfoot	Ethan Spooner	99.15%
Y2	Georgia Carnall Georgia is a kind, hardworking and resilient member of Y3 who puts 100% effort into everything she does. You are a pleasure to have in class.	Noah Brooks	Bella Hunt	92.34%
Y3	Oliver Jubb for his quiet acts of kindness and care that often slip under the radar unless he is 'caught in the act'. These things always get noticed in the end Oliver so don't go changing!	Layla Watson	Tommy Pellegrina	96.55%
Y4	Millie Crawford Millie is an outstanding pupil. Her kindness, work rate and behaviour are all exemplary and she is an absolute credit to Y4 and to Coit. You should be extremely proud of yourself, Millie!	Jasper Holroyde	Robert Denial	97.35%
Y5	Isobel Mason Izzi is an outstanding member of the Y5 class. She is resilient, hard-working and has a very caring nature. We love working with you and are very proud of you :-)	Isaiah Lee	Oliver Haine	97.41%
Y6	Alicia Mayfield for her calm attitude and consistent effort in all lessons.	Asiah Marriott	Fiona Wong	99.17%

Our CPG All Round KS1 Pupil winner for this term is Georgia Carnall. Our CPG All Round KS2 Pupil winner for this term is Sam Hall. Well done to both children.

Celebrating Success at home

Ryan Hatcher and Olivia Taylor have both moved up a level at swimming. Well done!
