

Weekly Achievement Letter
 Friday 22nd January 2021

National Virtual Library

The Oak National Academy has launched a new virtual library in partnership with the National Literacy Trust. The Virtual School Library hosts free reading and writing content from children's authors such as Dame Jacqueline Wilson, Josh Lacey and Konnie Huq. There is a free-to-access book every week from the platform's author of the week, alongside exclusive videos and the author's top three recommended reads.

<https://library.thenational.academy/>

Our Awards

	Bennett Award	House Points	Learning Mindset - Resilience
F2	Eddie Hudson Eddie, I have really loved your contributions on zoom this week! It is really brave of you to answer questions on zoom! All of your home learning has been completed to an amazing standard. Keep up the amazing work. :)	Ava Hall	Scarlett Love
Y1	Olive Allington Olive is always ready to learn and contribute. She is an asset to year 1, always willing to help others. Well done Olive!	Georgie Baker	Jai Sangha
Y2	Lucas Bailey A super effort from Lucas this week during all Zoom sessions and when completing his home learning tasks He always attends the sessions with enthusiasm and with a smile on his face. Well done!	Matilda Avery	Faith Mclachlan
Y3	Roxxie Barrett Parr Roxxie has done a fantastic job completing a lot of extra home learning this week. She has also been contributing a lot more in our class zoom sessions which is great!	Jake Mitchell	Rowan Potts
Y4	Zac Statham Zac has been working incredibly hard in school this week. He has taken real care when drafting his story and has grasped a new method of multiplication confidently - well done, Zac!	Robert Denial	Bailey Nicholson
Y5	Isaiah Lee Isaiah has been working so hard while at home and always sends in work of a good standard. Keep it up Isaiah, we are really proud of you :-)	Scarlet Boothby	Oscar Hudson
Y6	Frankie Tyree Exceptional piece of fictional writing and great effort in all Zoom sessions. Well done	Sienna Davis	Freya Creswick